Seven-year-old Chase Monroe and his mother, Maria, both from Shrewsbury were among winners of a "Meet Jacoby" contest sponsored by a sports drink company, owater, and Stop & Shop. They won the chance to meet face-to-face with Jacoby Ellsbury at a private breakfast on Sept. 14, held at owater headquarters in Concord, which celebrated Jacoby's "Strawberry Pomegranate" owater flavor. Chase is an adoring fan of the Red Sox centerfielder. Chase talked to Mr. Ellsbury about baseball and other sports, and even got the opportunity to try on Mr. Ellsbury's World Series ring. Jacoby also personalized a home plate for the Monroe family.
